- Question #4 - Who is the BizBuy Kit most appropriate for?

Question #1: I don't have a strong understanding of financials. Will the BizBuy Kit still work for me?

Answer: We have worked with thousands of business owners and buyers and are fully aware of the different levels of financial knowledge people may have, so it was very important that the business appraisal software be user friendly, straight forward to use and suitable for all levels of understanding and financial knowledge. If for any reason you have any question or are uncertain about anything, we provide full email and phone support - just contact our office and we will personally guide you through the process!

Question #2 - I would like to buy my business partner's share of the business. Will the BizBuy Kit be appropriate?

Answer: Yes it is, but we would suggest you purchase the Bizsale Kit instead, which covers partnership or employee buyouts. It's the same price and will likely be more valuable to you long term.

Question #3 - Does the content in the BizBuy Kit apply to any type of business?

Answer: Our kit supports the buying of any existing business. The information and strategies presented are based on actual experiences with a wide and extensive range of businesses. Our valuation tools are highly regarded by accountants, business brokers, and business experts, and we are confident that no matter what type of business you have or are considering you will find this a valuable resource.

Question #4 - Who is the BizBuy Kit most appropriate for?

Answer: Anyone from an inexperienced business person thinking about buying a business for the first time to the most experienced business buyer who may want to learn more about valuation process, and anyone who just wants access to reliable and proven valuation and business tools.
